

Razorback Invitational

The return of Kevin Bookout!

The throwing talent of Kevin Bookout returned on Friday night to the Razorback Invitational. Kevin looked powerful in his standing throws and gained approximately 1 meter on his glide. On the “What’s New” page video, his 18.72M throw you will notice that he initiates the glide from the toe similar to Randy Matson (also a former basketball star). Another video of his 18.72M throw (rear view) was sent in by Jamie Tallman and is in HQ Quick-Time at, <http://macthrowvideo.com/KBookout1872M.MOV>

Kevin kindly allowed us to take this photo with his coach right after the competition Friday night, it was nice to hear Kevin is a fan of MAC THROW VIDEO.
